

Did You Know?

Sleep is essential for the healthy brain development of babies and children.

Sleep patterns change as babies develop. Adults can help ensure good sleep patterns.

- Remember young babies sleep up to 16 hours per day
- Set up a bedtime and naptime routine that helps your baby settle down
- Put your baby down to sleep on their back, drowsy but awake

You can make a difference!

www.bbbgeorgia.org

